Marine & Family Programs are directly related to combat readiness. They serve as the main mechanism through which a variety of programs, services, and activities will be provided to our single and married Marines, Sailors and families, as well as retired service members, their family members DOD civilian employees. Our programs are the point of main effort in providing and supporting prevention services for our Marines and their families, as well as enhancing community readiness.

We are in Building 7200, across from Branch Medical Clinic.

639-5276/5252.

Operating hours:

Monday-Friday 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
